 - Full price additional tickets can be purchased at any open admission booth in front of the Zoo, in the Guest Service Lobby or online.
- Admission tickets and chaperone wristbands can be picked up at Zoo prior to your visit or day of.

Prior to your Zoo visit...

- Seven days prior to your visit, an email communication, Know Before You Go, will be sent to the provided onsite (day of visit) contact.
- Visit our website for ideas on how to plan your trip.
- We encourage you to:
 - Share your day of onsite contact information with chaperones if they need to locate your group inside the park.
 - Make copies/take photos of the Zoo map available on our website as it will not be available in print at the Zoo on the day of your visit.
 - Make sure your chaperones understand the goals of the field trip and any role they need to play in activities, including that they will need to stay with their assigned students for their entire visit.
 - Go over the Zoo rules with your clients and chaperones and establish behavioral expectations.
 - Remind clients to wear appropriate clothing for the anticipated weather conditions and bring water. Group visits take place rain or shine.
- Lunch at the Phoenix Zoo
 - Lunch can be arranged ahead of time. Please complete this form at least two weeks in advance of visit.
 - If your group intends to bring their own lunch, refer to your Know Before You Go email for locations of where to store and enjoy such lunches.
 - To ease lunch transportation at time of arrival, please bring rolling coolers or wagons labeled with your group name. Zoo staff are not able to transport lunches from your vehicles into the Zoo.

Arrival to the Zoo...

- For day of parking, please refer to the Know Before You Go email communications.
- Limited handicap parking is available in the main parking lot.
- For ADA drop off locations, refer to maps provided.
- Groups will enter through the Main Entrance located just across the bridge.
 - Your group is responsible for collecting and handing out the tickets to each attendee.
 - All chaperones and clients entering the Zoo under the discounted rate will need to be accounted for on a ticket.
 - You do not need to all enter at the same time. However, the Phoenix Zoo will not be able to hold onto or distribute tickets for you.
- Regardless of group entry point, guests with current Phoenix Zoo memberships must enter via the main Zoo entrance.
- All assisting staff members/teachers and adults entering under the Supervisory Care rate will be considered chaperones and are required to wear a wristband.

While you're at the Zoo...
