

How do I get more involved?

- Join our Facebook group! Search for “Phoenix Zoo Nature Play”
 - Share photos of your experiences.
 - Read and comment on posts.
 - Ask questions and engage in discussion with others.
- Bring a friend to the next Nature Play event.
- Share positive nature play experiences with friends and talk about the important benefits of this type of play.
- Set up your own neighborhood nature play event.
- Schedule nature play time with friends to hold your family accountable to making the time.
- Be an advocate for nature play and nature play spaces.
Talk about the importance of unstructured play with friends, teachers, city and state government representatives and in your local community.
