Decoration Guidelines

Our Policy: Due to the sensitive nature of our organization and for the safety of our animals and guests, all decorations must be approved prior to your event. The Phoenix Zoo prohibits the use of items listed below. If for any reason you have questions regarding your decorations or the use of any items listed below, please contact your sales representative for clarification.

The following items are prohibited:

- Balloons.
- Any candles with an exposed flame and dripping wax. Other candles may be used, but they must be in a container that rises above the flame and collects melted wax (battery powered candles are preferred).
- Paper lanterns intended to be released (they may be used as stationary décor with battery powered candles).
- Confetti, glitter, confetti or streamer poppers, silly string, tinsel, fake snow.
- Live animals of any kind.
- Bird seed, rice, fake flower petals (real flower petals and bubbles are okay).
- Any kind of sparklers or fireworks.
- Straw or hay (loose or bailed).
- Fog machines.
- Weapons of any kind.
- Any kind of color-dyed liquids (this may stain linens or flooring if spilled).

Decor may not be hung or attached to/from walls, windows, ceilings, lighting, vegetation or other structures. The use of nails, screws, hooks, adhesive or tape is strictly prohibited.

Decoration Guidelines

Event clients must appoint a day-of coordinator for their event. This person will be responsible for all décor set-up/tear-down at event locations. Event staff will be on grounds to supervise décor installation and enforce the rules in place.

Client will have access to the event venue two hours prior to event start time for set-up and decoration.

Client will have one hour after the event for tear-down/clean-up of décor items. All decorations must be removed and taken off grounds by a member of the party at the end of the event. The Phoenix Zoo will not be able to store items before or after your event time.

Admission of outside vendors needing access to Zoo grounds for event set-up and décor must be arranged 14 days prior to your event with your designated sales representative. All contracted workers on grounds must be insured. All vehicles on grounds must be licensed and insured. Zoo event staff must escort in and out all vehicles.
